PRESS RELEASE

Frank Ginsberg Elected Vice President & Treasurer of The American Hospital of Paris Foundation

New York, N.Y. September 23, 2009. The American Hospital of Paris Foundation announces the election of Frank Ginsberg to the position of Vice President & Treasurer.

Chairman and CEO of Avrett Free Ginsberg, a major advertising firm in New York City, Mr. Ginsberg has served as Director of the AHP Foundation since May 21, 2008. His election to the position of Vice President & Treasurer follows the resignation of George T. Lowy as Treasurer. Mr. Lowy will remain on the Board as Director and Vice President.

Mr. Ginsberg said, "The American Hospital of Paris Foundation is a vibrant charity with an important mission. I look forward to working with the Executive Committee to oversee the financial health of the organization, knowing that the advice and counsel from former Treasurer George Lowy will still be very much available."

Chairman of the Board Donna Chapman said, "On behalf of the Board of Directors, I extend thanks and appreciation to Frank for accepting the position as Treasurer. Frank brings his deep knowledge of running a highly successful advertising firm in New York City, and his growing understanding and appreciation for the American Hospital of Paris, to the position. Frank has been a delight to work with as a Director, and I look forward to working with him in his new capacity as Treasurer.

The mission of The American Hospital of Paris Foundation is to raise funds and awareness in the United States for the American Hospital of Paris. For more information contact Gary D.
