PRESS RELEASE

The American Hospital of Paris Foundation elects Frank Ginsberg to the Board of Directors

New York, NY. July, 2008. The American Hospital of Paris Foundation is pleased to announce that Frank Ginsberg has been elected a member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Ginsberg is an award-winning advertising executive in New York City. He is Chairman and CEO of Avrett Free Ginsberg, a company he has led for longer than any other CEO of a major advertising company. Mr. Ginsberg is on the Board of Directors of the AAAA Creative Committee and on the Board of Directors of the Ad Council and has served as a judge for the Andy's, Art Directors, Ceba and AAAA's O'Toole Awards. He is also a founder and board member of Georgia Bank, N.A. of East Hampton and Bridgehampton, New York. Mr. Ginsberg holds a Master's Degree in Fine Arts from NYU and a Bachelors of Fine Arts Degree from Boston University.

Donna Pearson Josey, Chairman of the AHP Foundation, said, "One of the strategic aims of the Foundation is to add depth of expertise and to expand awareness of the American Hospital of Paris throughout the United States and beyond. The appointment of Frank Ginsberg will help us achieve that goal by reaching out not only to the important business community of New York City, but to Frank's international contacts as well. I look forward to working with him in advancing the mission of the Foundation."

Mr. Ginsberg said, "I have long admired the American Hospital of Paris and its role in providing superb healthcare to the international community. I am delighted to join the AHP Foundation and help support this wonderful Franco-American institution."

The mission of The American Hospital of Paris Foundation is to raise funds and awareness in the United States for the American Hospital of Paris. For more information contact Gary D.
