PRESS RELEASE

Chef Daniel Boulud to be honored at American Hospital of Paris Foundation Benefit Dinner

New York, NY. January 27, 2010. The American Hospital of Paris Foundation is pleased to announce that Daniel Boulud, one of New York City's premiere French chefs, will be honored at a dinner benefiting the American Hospital of Paris, to be held at Boulud's flagship restaurant DANIEL on May 5, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ginsberg are Dinner Chairmen of our "Celebration of Food, France and Franco-American Friendship". A Dinner Committee is in formation.

Named "Outstanding Restaurateur" in 2006 by the James Beard Foundation, recipient of the Légion d'Honneur and recently awarded three stars in the Michelin guide, Chef Daniel Boulud is creator of a galaxy of ten award-winning restaurants in New York City, Palm Beach, Vancouver and Beijing, with openings to follow in London, Singapore and Miami. In addition, Daniel is a celebrated cookbook author and television host. He is also a devoted philanthropist, donating his time, talent and resources to countless organizations, most notably as a board member of Citymeals-on-Wheels, a charity that prepares and delivers meals to homebound elderly New Yorkers.

The Wednesday May 5th benefit dinner at DANIEL, 60 East 65th Street, New York City, will begin with a cocktail reception at 6:30 pm followed by a sumptuous seated dinner at 7:30. Attendance is by invitation only with ticket prices from $1,000 per person.

Guests will dine on the award-winning seasonal French cuisine that Daniel Boulud is renowned for. The four-course Spring menu will be paired with exquisite wines from the restaurant's world class cellar. In addition, gala guests will enjoy the opportunity to meet with the Chef and hear him speak about the adventures and secrets of his remarkable culinary career.

The mission of The American Hospital of Paris Foundation is to raise funds and awareness in the United States for the American Hospital of Paris.
